“The kitchen embodies the lifestyle of a home, forming the axis for the major living zones, so it’s vital to take the time to understand the clients’ functional and aesthetic requirements. JOINERY I go for simple lines, with unexpected and individually crafted details. This may be playing down a wall of panels to conceal appliances or treating an island bench like a piece of furniture. BENCHTOPS Honed Calacatta marble – in combination with a homogeneous hardwearing surface like stainless steel. Both have a softness and patina. STORAGE SOLUTIONS Larder pantry units allow storage into the full depth of cabinets – they make the most of every centimetre.

SINKS Acquello Italia fireclay sinks add a hint of tradition and nostalgia when combined with straight-lined detailing. Their extra-deep bowls hide dirty dishes below bench level. TAPWARE Vola ‘KV1’ in natural brass is classic and functional, and complements myriad styles. SPLASHBACKS Mirrored splashbacks amplify natural light and are highly effective in meshing most palettes. LIGHTING Flexibility is our number-one goal. Work surfaces need to be well lit, however indirect and ambient lighting ensure the kitchen can be enjoyed once the work is done. FLOORING Timber provides a warm, quiet surface, beautiful underfoot. Oak parquetry is a favourite, such as Royal Oak Floors by Harper & Sandilands.”
